

Hotel demonstrates Malaysian spirit

There you go: Phelia Resort and Spa Malacca's staff handing over the porridge packets and Jalur Gemilang to motorists entering to Malacca City via the Ayer Keroh Toll here.

By R.S.N.MURALI
murali@thestar.com.my

MALACCA: In conjunction with the Ramadan month and Merdeka celebrations, Philea Resort & SPA distributed 5,000 packets of bubur lambuk and 500 Jalur Gemilang to those entering the city via the Ayer Keroh toll complex last week.

State Tourism, Culture and Heritage committee chairman Datuk Latiff Tamby Chik who was given the honour to distribute the items, expressed his gratitude to the management of Philea for organising the event.

"Other establishments in Malacca should take cue of this as Philea has demonstrated the truly Malaysian spirit.

"This is the second consecutive year, Philea is organising such an event to distribute free packets to the public," he said.

The event was also witnessed by Phileas Finance Director Lim Beng Weh, Tourism Malaysia Malacca chapter officer Norisyam Odzali and Phileas chef Mohd Kamal Damiri.

When met later, Lim said the event was part of the hotel's corporate social responsibility.

He said 50kg each of chicken, beef and 1,500 kg of rice were used to prepare the porridge packets which was done through a gotong-royong endeavour.

Lim added part of the porridge packets were also handed over to Fatimah Al Zaharah, Tunah Harapan Semarak Kasih and Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah Al-Haj orphanage homes here.