Weekend Road Trip: Philea Resort&Spa Melaka

WRITTEN BY SYLISTIC ON MAY - 2 - 2014 UNDER MALACCA 0 COMMENT TAGS: MALACCA, PHILEA RESORT & SPA MELAKA, STAYCATION, WEEKEND GETAWAY

A man-made waterfall by the pool.

Weekend getaways – They come after TGIF! and they're short escapades that can be reached by bus or flight within a 4 hours radar. A 3 hours drive from Singapore or an hour from Kuala Lumpur, capital city of Malaysia will soon lead you to re-discover the best that nature has to offer at Philea Resort & Spa Melaka.

Everything serene for the heart and soul begins at the pavilion room under a roof with 3 other rooms in a wooden cottage. The pavilion room is easily accessible by a buggy upon check-in and just steps to the central waterfall swimming pool, spa and dining choices.

The Pavilion Room has a warm homely touch. Decked with wood furnishings and an external balcony, Philea Resort & Spa is nothing like the others – it does not provide the commercial hotel service, yet an unwinding experience for a family escapade. Space is not a concern as there are many seating areas pushed with sofas and a working desk that you should totally just leave it on a holiday.

The concept of a tropical resort isn't left out in all aspects of the Pavilion Room – warm lightings embrace the mood, a full-length bathtub to soak those weary legs after a long day and bathing amenities pairing up with the relaxing bathe under the rainshower.

A must-do on a resort stay: SPA. The Philea Resort & Spa Melaka has an in-house spa featuring an hour to 3 hours massage package in traditional hut prepared for couples. The changing room in each of the hut has totally surprised us – fitted with a really luxurious bathtub to soak in milk bathe. We took up an hour full-body massage under the hands of the skilful masseuse and it totally perked our senses after a long arrival day.

The waterfall pool right in the middle of the resort is another way to waive off the summer heat. Take a dip in the oasis with the backdrop of gushing waters from heights or for the young ones, a waddling fun in the child pool.

ALL-INCLUSIVE 2D1N/3D2N PACKAGE.

At just RM350 nett/pax/night, guests can enjoy all-day dining with a dinner, breakfast, stay in Pavilion Room, welcome drink with ice-cream and late-night complimentary beverages including alcoholic drinks at TROPICS LOUNGE.

BAYU CABANA serves occasional dinner next to the pool. The menu and locations for 'All-Inclusive package' change daily so that you'll not be having the same meals. It is a good deal to settle for the 'All-Inclusive package' as you do not have to worry about your meals and everything's settled in-house. The buffet dinner serves a filling portion of seafood, local delights such as laksa, desserts and readily-available hot food.

CRAVO CRAVO is another alternative for dinner. Serving both ala-carte and meals under Chef selection for 'All Inclusive Package, it boasts a fine-dining experience with appetiser, main course and dessert. A generous serving of steak appeared on the table together with a rich creamy whipped mushroom soup of the day and a nicely-presented green salad for appetiser.

Sprinkled cheesy Spaghetti with beef pasta sauce is one of the ala-carte menu for all-day dining. Guests can also follow the few courses meal whipped up by the chef as part of the 'All-Inclusive package' and settle for local cuisines in oriental style.

Nasi Lemak, a popular local breakfast is served in good old school banana leaf. You can mix and match your own ingredients and condiments topped with the legendary spicy samba chilli.

Buffet breakfast is a spread of American and local cuisines. Guests can also opt for request-to-serve by chefs such as chee cheong fan – soft, chewy meat bits melting in the mouth, roti prata dipped with rich curry sauce and omelette.

Book a stay today at Philea Resort & Spa Melaka today at phileahotel.com.my. Take advantage of the “All Inclusive Package” from now till 31 Dec 2014 at just RM350/person/night with all your meals and stay well-taken care.
